

Reader's Choice Menu

Choose 3 squares to complete after you read for 20 minutes. Circle the choices you make. Return your completed work to school tomorrow with a copy of this menu.

What is the problem in the book or passage and how was it solved? Complete the attached problem and solution graphic organizer.	What kind of book did you read, fiction or nonfiction? How do you know? On a piece of notebook paper write the title of the book. Then write 3 details that support your choice.	What is the book you read mostly about (main idea)? Complete the attached main idea graphic organizer.
Summarize the beginning, middle, and end of the book you read. Complete the attached retelling story map.	What could another title be for the book you read? On a sheet of notebook paper write the author's title for the book. Then write a new title and explain your choice using evidence from the story.	Who is the main character in the story? Complete the attached character traits graphic organizer.
On a piece of notebook paper, draw a picture of the setting of your book. Is this a place you would like to visit? Answer the above question and describe 3 reasons why you would or would not like to visit.	Oh no! The last page of the book has gone missing. You can't remember how it ends! On notebook paper, write a new ending to the book, and be sure it makes sense with the rest of the story. Don't forget to illustrate!	Your principal wants to ban this book from school! Write a letter to her with at least three sentences explaining why this book should stay.

